PSA calling for Denel lender to be made public

In conversation with Public Servants Association Assistant General Manager, Reuben Maleka about the PSA's call for the Denel lender to be made public. Public Enterprises Minister Pravin Gordhan said that after Denel announced that employees would only receive 85% of their salaries due to financial constraints, a lender came to the entity's aid to ensure it pays its staff in full, now the PSA wants the lender to be made public.
