Investment Conference discussed.

Does foreign investment really mean more jobs? That's the question as the investment summit continues in Sandton. President Cyril Ramaphosa addressed the summit today about major issues being faced by the country such as unemployment and Eskom. The conference is further discussed in the show Continue: Now that we know how the president plans to go about his plans to reassure investors. We take a look at how investors responded to the president's plans. With the target being R1.2Trillion we have seen a few investors putting some valuable investments.
