The Public Servants Association (PSA) congratulates Mpumalanga for achieving an impressive 84.99% pass rate in the 2024 National Senior Certificate (NSC) examinations, a significant improvement from 77% in 2023.

This accomplishment reflects the dedication of learners, Educators, parents, and other stakeholders. Ehlanzeni District led with an 88.43% pass rate, followed by Gert Sibande at 87.67%, Nkangala at 84.24%, and Bohlabela at 78.6%. Hoërskool Nelspruit achieved a 100% pass rate, with 269 learners earning 366 distinctions, whilst Mkolishi Secondary School also maintained a perfect pass rate for the second consecutive year. Mpumalanga exceeded its Mathematics target with a 66.37% pass rate surpassing the provincial target of 60% and displaying the commitment to excelling in critical subjects.

The PSA acknowledges the crucial roles of educators, parents, and families in supporting learners' success and commends learners for their dedication and perseverance.

In order to ensure sustained progress, the PSA calls for investment in resources and infrastructure for all schools to ensure equitable and conducive learning environments. Equal access to quality education is essential for a prosperous future. All stakeholders must continue investing in education to support Mpumalanga's progress in academic excellence. The PSA remains committed to supporting initiatives that advance education.
