

Celebrating a woman who made a difference in PSA Mpumalanga

The PSA is a Union that protects members' rights and promotes the interests of workers. As a commemoration to Women's Month, the PSA in Mpumalanga and Old Mutual are honouring a woman who made a difference in the PSA.

Asnath Sedibane is being honoured for the excellent service that she rendered to the PSA while she was appointed as a Labour Relations Officer from 1 October 2011 until 18 June 2021. During her years of service at the PSA, she handled both interests and rights matters in several Departments, the busiest being the Department of Justice and Constitutional Department, the Provincial Department of Public Works, Roads and Transport, SASSA and the National Prosecuting Authority. She worked with shop stewards and full-time shop stewards, advising, and representing members in different forums.

The PSA celebrates Asnath for her dedication and hard work when she was with PSA. The PSA wishes her well in all her future endeavours.
