Update: Wage dispute

Members are aware that the employer failed to implement the final leg of the three-year wage agreement. The PSA obtained a legal opinion on the matter and is of the opinion that there are good prospects of success to challenge the employer's non-implementation. On advice from legal representatives, a letter was sent to the employer, demanding the implementation before the end of 30 April 2021. The employer failed to implement the agreement by the deadline and the PSA has now appointed legal representatives to approach the courts and start with the legal process to enforce the implementation of the last leg of the wage agreement.

Members will be updated on developments.

The PSA wants to take this opportunity to wish all employees who are unwell owing to COVID-19 a safe and speedy recovery.
