PSA gains organisational rights at SEDA

The PSA is a Union of Choice with a proven track record and is committed to promoting and protecting the rights and interests of members in the workplace. As members may be aware, PSA embarked on a recruitment drive at SEDA earlier this year, which was a success that led to the PSA gaining a substantial number of new members.

The PSA engaged SEDA in terms of section 21 of the Labour Relations Act, requesting recognition and certain organisational rights, i.e. access to the workplace, election of shop stewards, representation of PSA members in grievance and disciplinary hearings, etc.

The PSA is delighted to inform members that the PSA and SEDA formalised their relationship by entering into a recognition agreement signed on 5 November 2021, thereby granting the PSA organisational rights with effect from the date of the signing of the agreement.

All SEDA employees are invited to join the PSA for the protection and promotion of their workplace rights and interests. PSA membership application forms can be accessed on the PSA website (www.psa.co.za) or from Molefe.Mosaka@psa.co.za.

Members will be kept informed.
