

PSA Social Media: Stay in touch with your Union of Choice

Thanks to social media platforms, staying informed in the digital age has never been easier. For PSA members, accessing important updates, engaging with fellow public servants, and the Union are just a click away. With the PSA's active presence on various social media channels, contacting the Union of Choice is convenient or accessible.

Social media platforms such as Facebook, X (formerly Twitter), TikTok, and Instagram have revolutionised how organisations communicate. For the PSA, these platforms serve as invaluable tools to disseminate information, foster engagement and amplify members' voices. By leveraging the power of social media, the PSA ensures that its messages reach a wide audience. Shop stewards are requested to encourage members to participate.

Stay informed

One of the primary benefits of following the PSA on social media is access to timely and relevant information. Whether it's updates on negotiations, announcements about upcoming events, or news articles relevant to public servants, the PSA's social media channels serve as a comprehensive source of information.

Get involved

Getting in touch with the PSA via social media is easy. Here are a few steps to take to stay connected and engaged:

Follow the PSA: Start by following the PSA on the preferred social media platforms (Facebook, X, Instagram, TikTok) to stay updated with the latest news.

Engage with content: Like, comment, and share posts that resonate with you. Engagement increases the visibility of the PSA's message and encourages meaningful discussions.

Reach out: If you have questions, concerns, or feedback, don't hesitate to reach out to the PSA directly via social-media messaging. The PSA's social media team will assist with any enquiries.

PSA member structures

PSA member structures are established in all provinces to promote the organisation of members, obtain their mandates, and improve communication with members. It is important to understand PSA member structures and shop stewards are requested to refer members to the PSA's website (www.psa.co.za) where such detailed information is available by means of the following links:
